

Privacy policy

Marian Middle School (MMS) values the trust its donors place in the organization and adheres to the highest standards in gathering, using and safeguarding customer information. This includes all of the donor's personal and gift information. Because of this trust, Marian Middle School will not rent, trade, sell, or share any information about its donors.

The information we collect

If you choose to give to the Marian Middle School, your completed pledge form provides us with your name, address, e-mail address and pledge information.

Access to the information

Marian Middle School's employees who may access your information in order to perform pledge processing and administrative functions are prohibited from disclosing your information to third parties. Organizations that provide operational or other support services to us must also agree to safeguard your information in strict compliance with our privacy policy.

Your participation is voluntary

Your relationship with Marian Middle School is voluntary and confidential. We use your information to send you acknowledgment of your gift and information we think you may find of interest about Marian Middle School. If you do not wish to receive such communications, you may let us know at any time by contacting MMS. In addition, every e-mail message you receive from Marian Middle School will include instructions on how to unsubscribe.

Our commitment to data security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect. Firewalls prevent outside parties from accessing our database and internal United Way access to the database is restricted to authorized individuals.

Contacting us

If you have any questions about Marian's privacy policies or practices, please contact Maureen A. Herrmann at (314) 771-7674 x208 or via e-mail at mherrmann@mms-stl.org.