A Letter from Our Graduate

Before I came to Marian in 5th grade I knew I was a fast runner. But I didn't know what it meant to be a teammate. I didn't know how playing team sports developed you as an athlete, as a person, as a critical thinker — and as a leader.

At Marian, I discovered my passion for sports, how sports intersected with academics — and how they were two parts of a much larger whole. I was on the volleyball, basketball, and track teams. My coaches at Marian each saw something in me that no one else had before — they saw me as a leader. They gave me opportunities that I didn't see in myself, and pushed me to go past my comfort zone and test my limits. They helped me develop confidence that I didn't know was inside me.

This confidence wasn't limited to the track or the court. Marian helped me to become a better student, try new experiences, and see my future path. It helped me develop as a person, and learn the skills I would need to succeed in high school.

Student-athletes have to be smart — both on and off the field. We have to understand time management because we have to juggle homework, practice, and games. Marian also taught me about being a good friend — and how to create the time in my day for camaraderie that comes with being on a team. Being a Marian Girl opened up my world.

At Incarnate Word Academy, my new high school, while many of my freshman teammates had a hard time balancing academics and sports, I was ready thanks to the rigorous foundation at Marian. Marian's challenging academics, supportive study halls, and enrichment program gave me the foundation necessary to know how to manage my time and prioritize school work.

As a high school student, Marian continued to support me by checking in with me at school, hosting workshops, and going on college visits with me.

But high school was only the middle of my Marian journey. During the summer of 2016, I interned at Ascension Health under the leadership of Marian Board Member Chris Young. This experience helped prepare me for an internship in clinic administration at Mercy Hospital.

I'm now a freshman at Mizzou and have plans to continue my journey as an orthopedic surgeon — coupling my love for athletics and science.

Life is a lot like running track. It requires no special equipment and seemingly anyone can do it. But both are actually much harder than they look.

When you invested in me, you gave me the running start that I needed on my journey. Thank you for all that you've done to impact my life and the lives of future Marian Girls.

With great appreciation,

Tori Chapman

OUR MISSION

Marian Middle School, a Catholic school welcoming adolescent girls of all backgrounds, is committed to breaking the cycle of poverty through education. Thank You from Our Leadership

Tori is an incredible young woman, and we're looking forward to seeing where her journey continues from here. It's girls like Tori, who are focused and driven to succeed, who embody the mission of Marian — breaking the cycle of poverty by allowing girls to realize their dreams. Invest in Her Future

Marian Middle School families commit to supporting students based on their financial capacity. The typical family pays $400 annually. However, the actual cost of educating one Marian student is more than $12,000 annually. It is through the generosity of our donors that we are able to succeed in our mission to break the cycle of poverty by Educating Girls for Life.

Marian Middle School would like to thank Laura Kangrga of Kangrga Design for volunteering her time and talents to create this annual report and several other marketing and communications materials during the 2017–2018 school year.

Foundation, Corporate, and Organizational Giving

2017-2018 EVENTS

10TH ANNUAL WOMEN'S EVENT Girls Night Out

Thursday, September 28, 2017
Charles F. Knight Center
at Washington University

Presented by Mercy+
Keynote Speaker: Dr. Lisa Williams,
CEO of World of EPI and creator of Positively Perfect Dolls

"Girls Night Out is a magical, joy-filled event that showcases current and future shining stars of the world. I had an absolute ball, and meeting the amazing young ladies of Marian and the special people who support their future dreams is one of my most special memories. I was honored to serve as keynote speaker; I am more committed than ever to supporting and building positive self-esteem in incredible young ladies like those who attend Marian."

— Dr. Lisa Williams, CEO of World of EPI, and creator of Positively Perfect Dolls

3RD ANNUAL YOUNG FRIENDS BEER TASTING Brewfest

Saturday, October 14, 2017

Lead Sponsor: Builder's Bloc Contracting

"I look forward to each year at Brewfest as a true kick-off to the Fall and holiday season. It is a highlight of being involved with the Young Friends of Marian Middle School and a wonderful way to learn about Marian and the St. Louis community. Most importantly, all proceeds go to our Marian girls! There's nothing better than supporting these amazing young women, helping them to chase those dreams and realize success. They truly can do anything that they put their minds to, and the Young Friends of Marian Middle School is here to ensure that continues."

— Audrey Lohse, Committee Chair

17TH ANNUAL Marian Magic

Saturday, April 21, 2018 • Four Seasons Hotel

Founder's Circle Sponsor: ASCENSION
HEALTH

Award of Excellence Honorees:
The Hunt Family and Berges Family Foundation

"What I like about the Marian Magic event is how it represents the values of Marian Middle School: straight-forward, mission-oriented and easy-to-understand. Just as the school's focus is on providing an educational path for young women to follow, the focus of Marian Magic is to provide the St. Louis community an opportunity to support that path. The best part of the evening for Marcia and me is to meet the young women of Marian Middle School. To hear their love for the school and aspirations for life gives us hope for the future. An investment in Marian Middle School yields an outstanding return for the St. Louis Region. And what better opportunity is there to make that investment than at Marian Magic with fellow supporters?"

— Joe Ambrose, Sponsorship Chair
Chairman, First Bank

8TH ANNUAL Young Friends Trivia Night

Friday, February 23, 2018 • Marian Middle School

"Even though the event is organized by the Young Friends committee, Trivia Night is great for all adult age groups. It's laid back, people bring a table full of food, and it's a fun way to raise money. Plus, what better way to promote a school than by challenging a room full of people to see how smart they really are?"

— Matt Bruns, Young Friend and Berkshire Hathaway sponsor
